KENTO URBAN RCS recycled nylon Everyday Backpack

Categorie: Genți și călătorii

The KENTO Everyday Backpack is designed to carry everything you need throughout the day- it offers plenty of room for daily essentials and is ideal for day trips and travel, folding compactly when needed. Crafted from RCS-certified recycled nylon with a PU backing and finished with an RCS-certified recycled polyester 300T lining, it contains 43% certified recycled material — offering a responsible and durable solution. The design features a front flap secured with two webbing straps and magnetic button closures. Under the flap, a front zipper pocket and a spacious main compartment with dual-side drawstring closure provide easy access and secure storage. Inside, there is room for a 15.6" laptop sleeve to keep your device protected and organised. A top webbing handle and adjustable back shoulder straps ensure comfortable carrying, while side bottle holders with drawstring closure add extra practicality.
